

The Freedom from Slavery Forum

Enabling Local Engagements and Global Synergies for Addressing Modern Slavery in North America and Europe

October 25-27, 2022 in Toronto, Canada and online

Daily Agenda - DRAFT

DAY 1 Tuesday, October 25:

- 6:00 p.m. Welcome & Introductions
- Opening remarks
 - Housekeeping and logistics
 - Dinner & Open Networking
-

DAY 2 Wednesday, October 26:

- 8:30 a.m. Introduction and opening remarks
- 9:15 a.m. Facilitated small groups discussions: Reflection on survivor engagement, care and leadership
- 11:00 a.m. Workshop A1: Learning from the experience of survivors, challenges and gaps in meeting needs
- Workshop B1: Creating a safe space
- 12:30 p.m. LUNCH
- 1:30 p.m. Panel 1: Ending sex trafficking, recruitment strategies and current trends
- 2:30 p.m. Workshop A2: Education and prevention
- Workshop B2: Online sexual exploitation, risks, and opportunities
- 4:10 p.m. Allyship pulse check - Facilitated discussion: Emerging best practices responses and successful allyship
- What are our opportunities as allies to engage survivors?
 - How can we effectively have an impact, reduce vulnerabilities and put safeguards in place to prevent exploitation?

- 5:00 p.m. Wrap Up & Adjourn
- Networking time
-

Day 3 Thursday, October 27:

- 8:30 a.m. Introduction and opening remarks
- 8:45 a.m. Panel 2: Survivor engagement and allyship in the anti-labour trafficking movement
- 9:45 a.m. Workshop A3: Addressing root causes of labor trafficking
- Workshop B3: Strengthened protection for at-risk populations, including nationals, non-nationals and other marginalized communities.
- 11:30 a.m. Workshop C3: New legal tools to address forced labor in supply chains
- Workshop D3: How immigration fuels trafficking risks
- 12:30 p.m. L U N C H
- 2:10 p.m. Facilitated small group discussions: Group discussion on amplifying the voices of survivors and allies moving forward Panel
- 2:45 p.m. Facilitated discussion: Eradicating labor trafficking: survivors and allies' voice amplified
- Shifting mental models and synergy to enhance collaboration of survivors and allies and consider what conditions can we create to prevent labor exploitation
- 3:40 p.m. Conclusions of the North America & Europe Regional Forum
- 5:00 p.m. Adjourn